

> Brodies 2010 MIPIM Team

Brodies is a top-quality, client-focused, leading UK commercial law practice delivering the highest level of legal services to a strong UK public and private sector client base, with an international perspective and delivery capability. With approximately 500 staff, including 64 partners and directors, between our Edinburgh and Glasgow offices, our turnover for 2008/9 was £39.1m.

Our property team is ranked top tier for Scottish Property by both The Legal 500 and Chambers Guide to the UK Legal Profession.

With 19 partners and around 70 property lawyers, we are the largest property department practising solely from offices in Scotland, and have a client list which is the envy of our competitors.

We incorporate the full range of property services, including; investment, commercial development, retail, hotel and leisure, residential development, urban regeneration and property finance.
